The falling leaves and the chill in the air signal that it must be time for another edition of the longest uninterrupted edition of the schoolboy fall gridiron classic - Latin vs English. I am certain that this year's game will be as memorable as all others, regardless of the outcome, as it provides us an opportunity to rekindle old friendships, celebrate sportsmanship and honor the academic achievement of two of America's most outstanding institutions of learning.

At this time of Thanksgiving, it is only appropriate that I take the opportunity to give thanks for the wonderful students and the community we are privileged to serve at The English High School. I hope that you will join me in giving thanks to our school staff, alumni and our football coaches, today in particular, for the effort and dedication they bring to their work with the young people they serve.

I extend my best wishes to The Latin School football team and their fans. To Head Master Kelley, staff, students and alumni, my congratulations on another outstanding school year.

Men of The English High School, block crisply, tackle hard, play well for I BELIEVE this is the year. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

Go Blue and Blue

Sincerely

Jose P. Duarte

Boston Latin School
Head Master's Message

The seasons change; the football rivalry remains the same. Time again for the longstanding competition for glory - the Latin/English game. No matter the winloss records during the fall, the highlight always takes place on Thanksgiving Day when we all gather here at Harvard Stadium to watch the battle for supremacy between the Wolfpack and the Bulldogs.

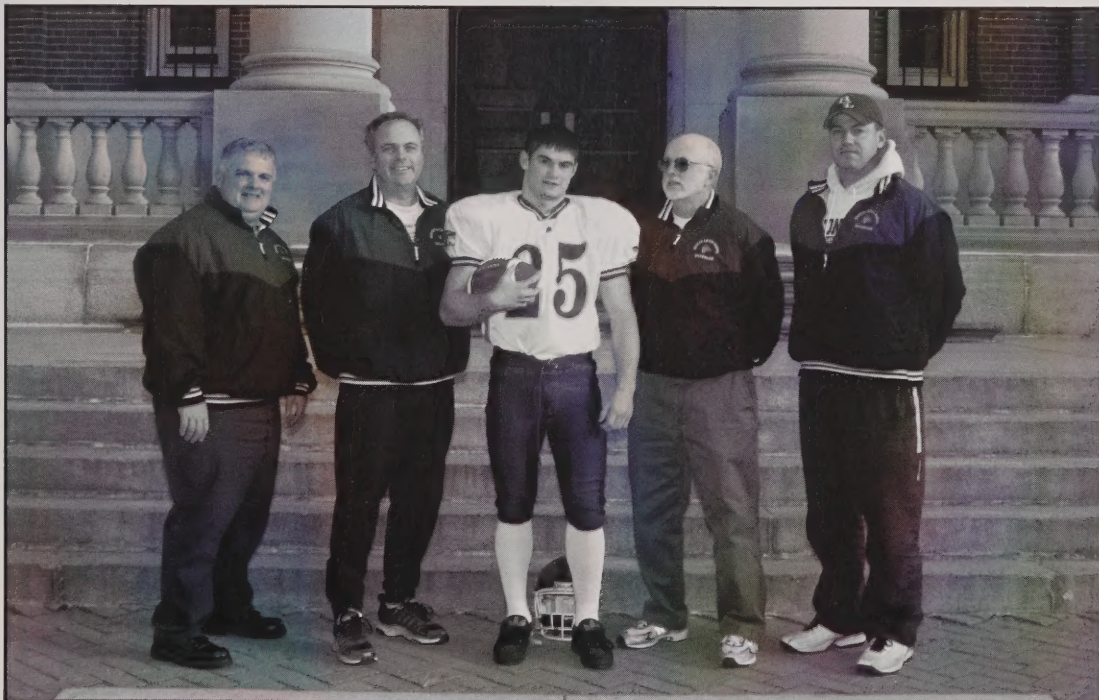

My profound thanks to the Latin School coaches, team members, cheerleaders, Step Squad, Football Band, alumni, parents and fans for their devotion to schoolboy athletics. The BLSA Varsity Club deserves recognition for continually highlighting athletic achievements. Check out www.bls.org (athletics) for updated information coming directly from the school. These systems allow BLS expanded opportunities for communication with our interested fans.

Best Wishes to Head Master Duarte and the English High School community, coaches, athletes, alums, staff and fans. Good sportsmanship on the field and among the spectators is always a testament to the respect that each school has for the other.

2005 is the year of the Alpha and the Omega - and Latin School devotees know the true meaning of that symbolism. Now is the time to add to the legend, to the mystique of the school, by maintaining the Head Master's tradition. - GO WOLFPACK! BOMB THE BLUE!

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
 Latin's banners fly
 Cheer on,
 cheer like volley thunder
 Echoes to the sky
 See the Latin team advancing
 Gaining more and more
 So we'll fight, fight, fight
 With all our might
 Dear Old Latin evermore.
